

DID DEENA HAVE A NOSE JOB?

When Deena Nicole Cortese showed up at the Palms Casino Resort in Las Vegas on March 21, tongues wagged about her altered appearance. So what gives? NYC-based plastic surgeon Dr. Elie Levine believes Deena — who has admitted to a nose job in the past — has gotten cheek fillers, lip enhancement with a plumper like Juvederm and, possibly, another nose job. "She may have had it shortened."

Meet the new Barrie

The star of the CW show The Carrie Diaries— a prequel to SATC— is getting lots of buzz

She was a child star, too!

Just like Sarah Jessica Parker, AnnaSophia Robb, 18, started early, making her debut on Nickelodeon's Drake & Josh at age 10.

She's got big Manolos to fill:

"Everyone's going to compare it to Sex and the City," says AnnaSophia, "but it's never going to be that."

Landing the role: Blake Lively was rumored to be in the running, but now that it's a CW series, AnnaSophia has nabbed the part. Exec producer Amy B. Harris says she's "graceful and intelligent."

The show is set in the '80s. "It's fun!" raves its new star.

The newbie and the original!

SJP approves! She even wrote AnnaSophia a congratulatory letter.
